MÜNTER

RODIN

HOPPER

3 June: EDWARD HOPPER (1882-1967): A prominent American realist painter and printmaker, Hopper's work demonstrates that realism is not merely a literal or photographic copying of what we see, but an interpretive rendering. His work is atmospheric, contemplative and invites exploration of the narrative.

24 June: EXPRESSIONISTS: KANDINSKY, AND THE BLUE RIDER: A group of artists who, in the early C20th, decided to form 'a union of various countries to serve one purpose' – to transform modern art. We will be looking at various art forms by these extraordinary artists – an explosion of vibrant colours and experimental ideas expressed through their painting, sculpture, dance and photography. (Exhibition of interest: Tate Modern 25 April - 20 October 2024)

15 July: NOW YOU SEE US: WOMEN ARTISTS IN BRITAIN 1520-1920: Exceptional women artists, who forged commercially successful careers producing outstanding work in genres normally regarded as the preserve of men at the times in which they lived, namely history paintings, battle scenes and the nude. (Exhibition of interest: Tate Britain 16 May – 13 October 2024)

5 August: RODIN (1840-1917): A sculptor who brought a unique expression of immediacy, vitality and animation to his work. Although inspired by traditional works, he rebelled against their idealised forms, introducing innovative practices that paved the way for modern sculpture.

Forthcoming talk dates for your diary: 2 & 23 September, 14 October, 4 & 25 November and 16 December.
