 "Instead of a honeymoon", their only label produced, with a wonderful story behind it. Indeed the money set aside for their honeymoon was used to buy this vineyard. It was love at first sight for this two-hectare plot of land, which he cultivates with his wife and love. Villányi Franc is the epitome of elegance and harmony. Full-bodied and exciting red wine. Ripe fruitiness accompanied by delicious and diverse barrel spices and tobacco notes. Refreshing acidity, velvety tannins, long finish.

It resembles a Madeira, with its bouquet of chestnut, gingerbread, and citrus zest. Masses of acidity and dynamism transform the sweetness into a fresh and invigorating wine.
Stunningly complex, one moment it is honeyed pecans, golden figs, and dried pears, the next moment it tastes of golden figs and dried pears, and the next moment it tastes of the umami of coffee bitterness, tobacco spice, and lime.
